Two Of His Companions Lost Their Lives In Terrible Catastrophe Near Brookfield Junction At Three This Morning.

AUTOMOBILE DITCHED AND UPSET

And Both The Living And Dead Were Pinioned Thereun- der Until Rescuers At Dawn Cleared Away Wreck With Axes.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 7.—Greeley Sloan of Janesville and Teddy Murphy, a boxing promoter of Milwaukee, were the only ones to escape with their lives in the terrible automobile catastrophe which happened in the vicinity of Brookfield Junction, in Waukesha county, about three o'clock this morning. Former Alderman Joseph Kuschert and George W. Posa, the chauffeur, were dead when, near sunrise, farmers armed with axes and other implements succeeded in releasing the prisoners pinioned under the overturned touring-car.

Steering Gear Jammed
The accident is supposed to have been caused by a jammed steering gear interfering with the guidance of the machine in such a way that it suddenly left its path and plunged into the ditch by the roadside. The traces of living and dead were covered with grime and soot, at the time of the rescue, and in the confusion which followed the names were intermingled, so that it was erroneously reported that Sloan and Murphy were killed. The Janesville man is badly bruised and cut and may have sustained internal injuries. But it has not been ascertained that any bones are broken and it is believed that he will recover. The dead bodies of the two victims were not removed from the roadside until six o'clock this morning.

On Way to Lake Okauchee
The party left Milwaukee at half-past two o'clock in two machines, their destination being "Tag" Lacey's hotel at Lake Okauchee, which is located near Oconomowoc. Sloan and his companions were in Alderman Koerner's touring-car but Koerner, himself, was riding ahead in another one.

No Help Was Near
Koerner and his associates reached Lacey's hotel at the lake and waited for a half hour for the balance of the party before any uneasiness was felt concerning them. They were about to start back when a telephone message reached them, bringing the tidings of what had occurred. For, in the meantime, Edward Bach, a Milwaukee automobilist, had chanced to pass by the scene of the tragedy and had been halted by the cries of the prisoners underneath. He hastened to the nearest farm-house for assistance and soon had a good-sized band at work on the overturned car.

At Murphy's Home
"Teddy" Murphy, the well known sporting man, took Sloan to his home on Twelfth street where he is confined to the bed with several fractured ribs and a badly bruised body. Murphy used the machine of Frank Mulker and returned to the scene of the accident. Dorrel was then also taken home accompanied by his wife who had heard of the accident and had visited the scene.

The undertaking wagon of Pencock & Sons was ordered to the place and brought the body of Kuschert to the city where it is being prepared for burial. Sloan and Dorrel were thrown fully twenty-five feet from the machine by the impact with a large tree.

COMMISSION ORDERS LIVE STOCK RATES CUT DOWN

Tariffs On Stock Shipments Ordered Reduced From Twenty To Twenty-Five Per Cent--Houser Made Complaint.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Aug. 7.—Sweeping reductions in the rates for shipping livestock were ordered by the Wisconsin railroad commission in a decision announced today. While various complaints against the existing rates on stock have been filed with the commission, one by former Secretary of State Walter L. Houser, this action was taken as the result of a general investigation made by the commission without regard to formal complaints filed.

The reductions are of various degrees, but the average will be not less than twenty per cent. The decision is based upon investigations and calculations practically completed by the commission prior to the recent enactment of a two-cent passenger fare law and it is already said that the roads will resist the application of the new schedule because of the impairment of earnings due to the cut in passenger rates.

The Wisconsin commission early in its career adopted a principle according to which rates for freight service should be based absolutely upon cost and income from freight traffic, and passenger rates should be based absolutely upon cost and income from passenger service. The commission after a year of investigation ordered a passenger rate of two and a half cents a mile, as the lowest rate that could be maintained under this principle and not make it necessary for the losses from low-rate passenger business to be made up from the earnings of freight business.

The railroads admit that the freight business is more important to them than passenger business and that they could easily make up losses on passenger business by adding some to freight rates over what is necessary to pay the cost of freight traffic and a fair profit on the investment. It is said that the railroad lawyers have concluded that an attack can be made on a sweeping freight rate reduction, such as is now ordered on live stock rates, on the ground that the commission failed to consider the cost and earnings of freight and passenger business together, but estimated the freight business by itself.

Next week, August 15, the leading railroads will put the two-cent rate in force, but the Northwestern company has decided to do so under protest, and may litigate as soon as the change can be tested.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 7.—The Wisconsin railroad commission today rendered a decision cutting off 20 to 25 per cent from rates charged for shipping live stock. The commission holds that rates in Wisconsin are unreasonable and unlawful, that they are decidedly higher than in Illinois and Iowa, and particularly excessive for long distances in the northern and western part of the state. The action of the commission is based on a long investigation of rates and formal complaint of ex-Secretary of State Walter L. Houser.

COUNTRY ROADS;
THEIR HISTORY

FREDERICK J. HASKINS IN THE MILWAUKEE SENTINEL TELLS IT.

IS OF MUCH INTEREST

Government Experts Are Now at Work in the Country Building Experimental Roads.

Just at the present time good roads and their construction are of interest to the farmers and tax payers of Rock county. Down in Clinton township a force of government workers are at work building a sample half mile of road. In the Milwaukee Sentinel Frederick J. Haskins has an interesting article on the country roads of America. It is so interesting at the present time that it is reprinted below. It treats with the roads from the earliest times and shows the growth and value of good country roads to both farmers and business men.

The first settler who built a road followed the most convenient Indian trail, except that he must needs blaze a mark on tree trunks to guide the next traveler. The Indian needed no mark of this kind, the bark on the tree, the bend of the leaves, the tilt of the grass blades being sufficient sign for him. The first road maker was so anxious to get to the promised land beyond the hills to take his puls with the new thoroughfare, he built temporary bridges, zig-zagged across the plains, threw down a cor-durey foundation where the marshes hindered him, and plunged on. The next wagon cut the roads deeper.
When settlements sprang up along this route the old road became a public thoroughfare over which produce must be taken to market and supplies brought home. When the road became impassable, there was a problem to be met. Road building soon rose from a matter of neighborhood interest to one of national importance.

A good road had determined the price of farm products, and the value of farms had fluctuated in many states with the condition of the roads.
The rapid growth of cities and the consequent depopulation of rural communities can be traced directly or indirectly to the country roads that have prevented intercourse with the world. In New York the shrinkage in value of farm property in 1900 was estimated to be $60,000,000, and in connection with this it may be stated that this state has only 7 per cent of her country roads improved by surface crossings and proper grading.
In Maryland the shrinkage in farm values is estimated at $200,000 a year, and Maryland has only 9 per cent of her roads improved. The nation's bill for wagoning farm produce is at least $1,000,000,000 a year, $500,000,000 of this is a useless waste and is attributable to bad roads. North Carolina alone is said to lose $10,000,000 a year in this fashion.

America had many thousands of years of historic road making back of her when she started to build her own thoroughfares, and in some related instances profited by them. The day when they traveled on Roman roads from northern Scotland to Malaga the Romans, at a distance of nearly 4,000 miles, exclusive of the water crossings. These roads were built in the time of Rome's greatness when commercial power, order and law were to be kept supreme, and she knew that roads were her best civilizers. She spent from $30,000 to $100,000 a mile on these roads, and the bed is from three to seven feet deep. Our most costly American roads have cost from $11,000 to $15, 000 a mile. The greatness of old Rome is a tale of long ago, yet the massive stone highways of the Incas today defy time and dynasty, and death, and stand as a memorial to the people who built them under so much discomfort centuries before the coming of Pizarro. The decay of China is said to be in a great measure due to her lack of good roads.

When the western migrations began and the newly made states realized that dirt roads could not bear heavy travel at all seasons of the year, the study of road making became a serious matter. One John L.
Macadam of England had demonstrated the efficiency of a gravel dressing on a leveled clay surface. In 1808 this was tried in the United States for the first time on the Pike running from Lancaster to Philadelphia, sixty-two miles being completed in two years at a cost of $165,000. Toll gates were set along the way, and the era of good roads in America had dawned. It was a slow and expensive process, however, for the gravel was not always available in all the states, and the only method of transportation was by wagon. New York turned her experiments in another line and in 1837 built the first plank roads in this country. Like wild fire, timber in those days was not only plentiful but an annoying superfluity, and road making seemed a good way in which to use it up. In fifteen years New York had 2,000 miles of plank roads and other states were building them as fast as they could. The cost was usually about $2,000 a mile and the farmers and merchants were saved more than that in the long run. However, all declare that the success of the picnic was greatly due to his efforts in preparing for the accommodation of the crowds that came in on every regular train and several special trains run for the picnic. Besides managing the picnic Superintendent Harrell also won the "Fat Men's" race in record-breaking time.

FIFTY ITALIANS AT
NEW YARDS LEAVE

Laborers Quit Job Here and Hike For Chicago—Board Too High Here.

Because they were hoaxed on the job, kicked on paying $1 a week for board and bunk, and had worked long enough for the present, fifty Italians left pick and shovel behind yesterday at the new North-Western yards south of the city, and took train for Chicago. Work was so much for some of them though several of the gang that quit had been employed at the new yards most of the summer. They returned to Chicago where labor is plenty and laborers are scarce.

AN OFFER FOR LIBERTY BELL.
Some of the Philadelphians who accompanied the Liberty Bell to Boston on Bunker Hill day have suggested that as a return compliment New England should send Plymouth Rock to Philadelphia. This is hardly practical, but if they will loan us the old Liberty Bell in Jansville we will promise to send them a donation of BEN HUR FLOUR. That ought to make them happy if they appreciate good flour and good things to eat.
BEN HUR FLOUR.

Eggs of the Wren.

fresh-colored eggs suffice to keep the nervous wren in her home.

Also impossible.

THE GREASED PIG

Dennis Barry Captured Slippery Swine at North-Western Picnic—All Report Fine Time.

Four hundred twenty ones returned home last night from North Fond du Lac where the annual employees' picnic of the North-Western road was held yesterday. The Jansville delegation returned with one prize, that of the greased pig which Switchehan Dennis Barry captured in the wilds after a desperate chase. Halfroad men who were at the picnic declared this morning that it was worth while making the trip to see Barry land his "royal pig." All who were at North Fond du Lac yesterday have nothing but words of praise for Superintendent C. L. Harrell, of the Northern Wisconsin division, who had charge of the arrangements of the picnic. They

TROLLEY LEAGUE

IS A SUCCESS

DIRECTORS MET HERE AND COM-PLETED THE SCHEDULE.

SIX TEAMS NEXT SEASON

Elgin and Freeport are Anxious to Get in the Game and Will be Accommodated—First Game Counted—New Umpire Named.

Officers of the Interurban baseball league met at the Hotel Myers yesterday afternoon, pursuant to the call of President Charles B. Conrad to complete the schedule and discuss prospects and plans for the future. Those present beside the president were Secretary E. O. Andrews of Belvidere, Charles Nelson of Rockford club, George Wilbur of the Beloit club, and Thomas Abbott of the Jansville club.

Good Financial Showing.
The financial accounting showed that the receipts at Belvidere last Sunday amounted to $226 and at Yost's park, $185. This showing was considered highly satisfactory and the resources of the clubs are now such that they can stand one or two rainy Sundays without a deficit.

First Game is Counted.
Beloit was given one victory by a decision to count the first game of the season played with Jansville. The score on this occasion was thrown out owing to the fact that the Beloit club had forfeited the game on the same day ended in a dispute and was not counted. The officials decided yesterday that if it develops at the end of the season that this game would have made any difference in the final reckoning, it will have to be played over again.

Rockford Heads League.
As matters now stand, Rockford heads the league with two games won and none lost; Jansville is second with two games won and one lost; Beloit is third with one game won and two lost; and Belvidere is fourth, with two games lost and none won.

Tom Mills Named as Umpire.
Thomas Mills of Beloit was appointed umpire and will officiate at Yost's park next Sunday. Umpire Bradley of Clinton will officiate at Rockford.

Six Teams Next Season.
Elgin and Freeport will become members of the Trolley League next season and it is possible that Saturday as well as Sunday games will be scheduled. The latter plan appears to be a promising one for the shops in Beloit, Freeport and Belvidere and many of the factories here are making it a practice to close down Saturday afternoons during the summer season.

The Schedule.
In the schedule which follows the names of the defending teams—Beloit and Jansville—appear in place of Yost's Park which serves as the "home grounds" for both.

TRUST BUSTING

The most popular man in the hearts of the American people today is President Roosevelt.

Why?

Because he stands for the "square deal" to the common people as well as to the corporations.

He takes the side of the people who need things and against the combinations that would take advantage of their needs, to extort undue gains.

These are days when lots of men find it to their profit to combine and raise prices.

In Dentistry, Dr. Richards of Janesville holds aloof from all local combines and maintains his prices on a living, reasonable basis.

One lady recently saved $17 on her dental bill by selecting him to do her dental work.

He does the BEST of work. His prices won't let you.

DAMAGE BY STORMS WAS CONSIDERABLE

Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin Were Severely Devastated by Last Night's Storm.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Because of severe local storms in various sections of the Mississippi valley during the last eighteen hours, the telegraph companies have lost most of their wires in the west and southwest and north. The storm in the city was one of the most severe in recent years, the wind attaining a velocity at times of fully fifty miles an hour.

At St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 7.—(Rain, hail, lightning and a severe wind storm, the latter approaching in severity a tornado, late yesterday afternoon, did damage in Minnesota, Wisconsin and northern Iowa, which at present is incalculable owing to the telegraph and telephone lines being in such a crippled condition. The details are difficult to obtain. The storm was scarcely felt in the Twin Cities. In the vicinity of Winona and from there through the state and southwest into Iowa the damage by wind was very heavy.

At Albert Lea.

Albert Lea, Minn., Aug. 7.—A tornado swept across Winnebago county, Iowa, late Tuesday afternoon and although the reports are conflicting, it is known one person was killed in Jolee village, which was destroyed and several injured. Some persons say twenty were killed.

In Iowa.

Mason City, Ia., Aug. 7.—Three persons were killed and four injured, and thousands of dollars' worth of damage done through this section of Iowa Tuesday evening by a tornado.

NEW YORK MOBS FURIOUS

TRY TO KILL SEVERAL MEN WHO ARE ACCUSED BY GIRLS.

Greek Peddler and Innocent Workmen Terribly Pounded and Kicked—Millwright Severely Mauled.

New York, Aug. 7.—More of what have come to be seriously known as police headquarters as "non" crimes against girls were followed by more lynchings Tuesday. Out of the score of complaints that reached the police, a half dozen demanded serious attention. Whether or not the number is extraordinary is disputed, but certain it is that never before has mob vengeance so frequently attended attacks upon children.

Led by a woman who, alternately in Italian and broken English, cried, "Avenge my daughter," a reckless crowd of perhaps 2,000 persons Tuesday night stormed the Fourteenth street car barns of the Metropolitan Street Railway company where a policeman had sought refuge with a seriously wounded prisoner. Paul Sorgerato, a Greek peddler, 30 years of age, had made the mistake, so it is charged, of kissing Grace Josco, an Italian of 11 years. A shrill cry from the girl and an impassioned appeal by the mother put the foreigners of the neighborhood in a rage and as the Greek took to his heels, a crowd pursued. When a block had been covered Sorgerato stumbled and fell, and the mob was upon him. Kicked nearly senseless, the Greek, a powerful man, nevertheless, gained his feet only to be knocked down again.

By this time some one had snatched a clothes line from the window of a grocery store, and the rioters attempted to put a noose over the offender's head. Only the over-angerness of each rioter to have a hand in the lashing saved the peddler's neck. During the confusion a policeman arrived and clubbed his way to the endangered man and concealed him in the car barns.

Cheated of their man the crowd vented its fury on Gaston Koriskell, an unoffending workman, homeward bound. As he was passing the rioters a boy pointed him out, at the same time yelling, "That's the man's friend. He was there too!" Koriskell was pounded until he was unconscious. The police reserves finally got the injured man and removed him to a hospital.

Edward Pratt, a millwright, had a somewhat similar experience late Tuesday afternoon in West 57th street. Nokie and Helen Farrell, each about ten years old, accused Pratt of improper remarks. He was frantically mauled before rescued from the mob by the police.

Adelaide Wilder, a nurse, fought off an assailant on the West Side. The man who attacked. A man who attempted an assault upon a little girl in Greene street escaped. Tony Sardo was arrested on a child's complaint in Brooklyn.

LOUISVILLE WANTS CONVENTION

Invites Democrats to Assemble in That City in 1908.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 7.—In opening a vigorous campaign to secure the next Democratic national convention for Louisville, Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, United States Senator James H. McCreary and Thomas H. Poynter, Mayor Robert W. Bingham of Louisville, and all the members of Kentucky's delegation in the lower house of congress, both Democratic and Republican, united Tuesday in a joint letter to the members of the Democratic national committee, inviting and requesting them to hold the next national gathering in this city.

It is pointed out that Louisville is midway between the north and the south, has the largest and best appointed auditorium hall in the United States, and has ample hotel accommodations. Hon. Tennis Elbow.

CLEVER PACEY M'FARLAND.

Chicago Boy Won All His Thirty-nine Fights Since 1904. Mostly Knockouts. Impetuous citizens of the doubling state of Missouri frankly confess that Pacey M'Farland has exhibited a convincing quantity of Queensberry intelligence and that he doubtless will continue to "show" to an appreciative public.

Pacey has the unique record of having won, either by knockout or on points, every one of the thirty-nine fights in which he has engaged since he entered the ring in 1904.

Thirty-one of the battles he won by knockouts, and in the other eight bouts he carried the decision on points. It follows, as a matter of course, that M'Farland must have won his bouts decisively, for few referees nowadays care to decide in favor of a fighter on points unless he has won convincingly, and therefore decisions of drawn battles are numerous. The fact that M'Farland is a great boxer is a fact that is not in dispute.

PACEY M'FARLAND.

Farland has not a drawn fight in his record shows that he must have won each one by a large majority.

Henry Gilmore, Jr., who is the manager of M'Farland and whose father once fought for the lightweight honors and lost, declares that M'Farland is the coming lightweight champion of the world.

Naturally the assertion can be ascribed largely to the enthusiasm of the manager in the future of a man who may curb him, but the record of the youngster is certainly worthy of serious consideration. Pacey is only nineteen years old, having been born in Chicago on Nov. 1, 1888. He was christened Patrick M'Farland and was for some inexplicable reason nicknamed Pacey by the boys in the neighborhood.

A glance at the list of M'Farland's victims does not reveal the presence of any very formidable pugilists. In fact, up to the present young Pacey had not beaten any men who were more than mediocre in ability, but last spring he defeated two men, in the doing of which he stamped himself as a good one. Kid Goodman and Maurice Meyers are the men, and while M'Farland won on points, yet he did so handsily.

There is only one weak spot in Pacey's armor, and that is his failure to meet Dick Hyland recently when he had the chance. Perhaps he can give a satisfactory reason for his action. It may have been the shrewd manager who concluded that Hyland was too tough a proposition to send his youngster against so early in the game. In that case the manager showed good judgment.

A Wrong Think.

That lack of timely hitting is what is losing the National league pennant for the St. Louis Nationals is the wall of Stanley Robinson, who thinks his team one of the strongest in the league.

John Ganzel, Captain John Ganzel of the Cincinnati team is an expert bowler.

Queer Smokes.

"Tobacco," said a tobaccoist, "is one of many herbs that are smoked. In the Orient, for instance, blang, or cannabla, a drug that gives one the desire to curlew people's feet, goes into loads of pipes. Some savages smoke the leaves of the wild potato and the wild tomato. These bitter leaves are narcotic. They throw you into a stupor. Pursued in, though, they bring on insanity. Some of the Swiss guides smoke 'mountain tobacco,' a weed that grows only at great heights. This produces an intoxication akin to alcohol. Our Indians, when hard up, smoke holly and such leaves, and the silly leaves of 'Indian tobacco,' which every boy has chewed."

Robbie Had It.

Little Robbie, aged four years, came into the sitting room with his apron turned up in front to show the beads of five half-grown kittens in a row around his waist. "See, mamma, I've got a whole category," he said.

THE ROUNDUP COLUMN.

West Unwinds a Ball Yarn and a Sarcastic or Two.

It begins to look as though the great but erratic pitcher Rube Waddell and the Athletic club were coming to the parting of the ways. A dispatch from Detroit recently conveyed the following interesting and highly probable news:

"Before leaving Detroit after Friday's game Connie Mack announced that he intended to dispose of Rube Waddell, and it is said that he has already opened negotiations with Clark Griffith of the New York American league club for the disposal of the Rube. When Waddell relieved by-gone Friday he did not exert himself, pitching apathetically and allowing the Tigers to pile up six runs on him. Mack sat on the bench and called Waddell to task every time that he came in from the field, but to no avail. Waddell simply walked to the pitcher's box and repeated his manifestly indifferent performance. Then Mack decided to unload Waddell and telegraphed Griffith. It is said Griffith will give several players for Waddell, but whether the deal will go through is not known. Mack has threatened to dispose of Waddell before, but each time Waddell promised to be good and Mack kept him."

Ohio is a great baseball state. Cleveland is a good second in the American league; Columbus leads the American association, with Toledo second; Springfield has the honors in the Central, and Canton is third; Newark is ahead in the O. and P., and Youngstown is second; Steubenville occupies the leading position in the P. O. M., and Zanesville is third. The National league is the only one in which Ohio teams do not make a good showing, Cincinnati being in the second division.

John L. Sullivan several years ago umpired a ball game at Weehawken, N. J., between the West New York Field club and the old franchise of Newark, N. J., one of the oldest semi-professional teams in the country. Castro, then a member of the Manhattan college team, and Jack O'Neill, the well known semi-professional catcher, were the franchise's battery. Sullivan was umpiring behind the pitcher.

During the first inning when O'Neill received the ball he would work the catcher's trick of pulling a white pitch toward the plate and then hold up the ball, asking for a strike. "The scheme didn't work with John L., and he passed a couple of the batters. After the inning was over Sullivan said to Castro with his full, deep voice: "Say, pitcher, you tell that young fellow to cut that out or I'll cut him."

JOHN L. WAS BOSS OF THE GAME.

out of the game, and that goes?" O'Neill took the hint and pulled no more wide ones.

Later in the game Tom Brush of the West New Yorks took a desperate chance and tried to steal home from third. The catcher touched him fully a yard from the rubber, but Sullivan called Brush safe. Nobody disputed the ex-champion's decision, but after the game he said:

"I knew that fellow was out at the plate, but I wouldn't call anybody out who had the nerve to take a chance like that!"

After decrying the Chicago archers into the belief that he would appear to shoot with them the Indian White Thunder failed to show up. Would it be stretching a point to say that this was an arch conspiracy?

Why can't the New York Nationals win the pennant? I'll give you a Frank answer. They have no chance.

It is probably only a coincidence that a race which left a bad taste in a good many mouths at Louisville was won by a horse named Pete Vinegar.

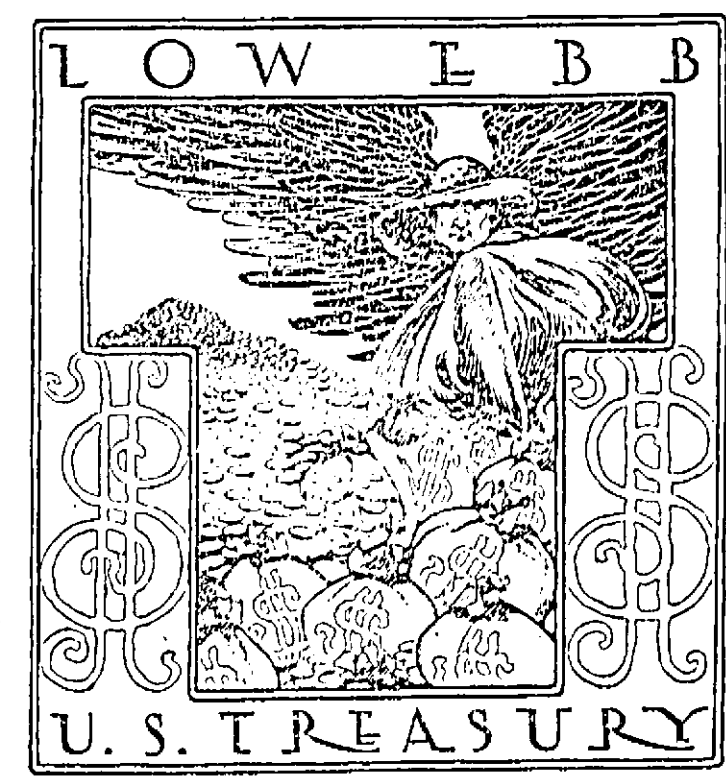

A brilliant thinker recently broke into print with the "news" that the running horse race game "is full of crooks." Microscopic! Probably he will soon learn that there is hardly an honest man in the game. The brilliant thinker was himself a professional horseman for many years.

Poor old Bob Fitzsimmons! Think how the mighty has fallen! The conqueror of Jim Corbett, the world's clearest boxer in his prime, could not last two rounds with a black man who never defeated a good fighter in his life! Bob probably needed money very badly or else he would not have taken such a chance.

S.S.S. HEALS S.S.S. OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal.
